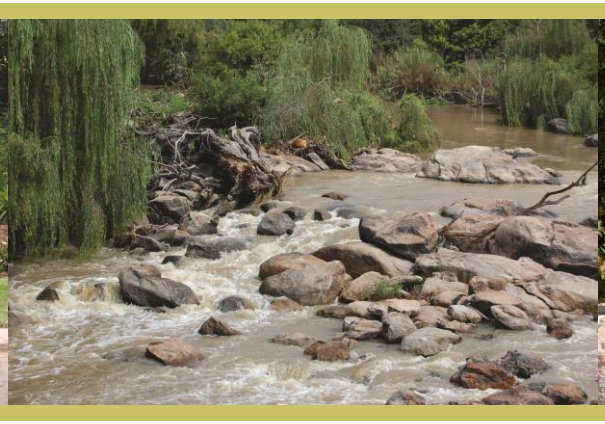
island nature estate

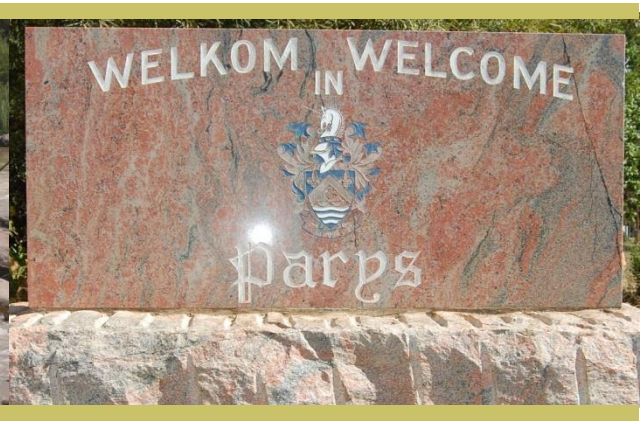
vaal de gráce

Presenting nature's cradle, your right to exist in perfect splendour

your island and bush retreat

Presenting nature's cradle, your right to exist in perfect splendour





Situated only 100km away from Johannesburg. Vaal de Gráce is a unique property development currently on offer is South Africa. The estate is situated on a big island in the middle of the Vaal River, close to the "boutique" town of Parys, Free State.

Add to this biosphere, small airport and some of the best "platteland" restaurants to be found, the area is a must for those wanting a place to enjoy for a weekend break or a new, quality, permanent lifestyle.

The private residential nature estate offers a once in a lifetime opportunity to combine a serene, quiet lifestyle with the added benefit of a secure guarded island retreat. If it's "back to nature" you desire, we have it for you.

Imagine being lulled to sleep by sounds of nature, this is the Vaal de Gráce Estate promise. Space, security, nature, river, peace and quiet.

The estate still has some prime river & bush residential stands available - yours is waiting, but not for much longer ...

enjoy the natural haven

Your island is a natural haven of indigenous flora and fauna, home to over 300 species of birds and a wide variety of small mammals. Stroll along the winding roads, taking in a variety of buck, otters, meerkat, dassies and rock hares. If fishing is your bag, Vaal de Gráce offers superb seldom fished spots on the islands river banks.

Vaal de Gráce Golf Estate offers a unique round of golf played over a boundary that separates two provinces, play 14 holes in the North West and 4 holes in the Free State – course design extraordinaire. The course adjoins your Nature Estate, perfect combination of bush and golf.

Our ultimate dream is for you, the owner, to view your island retreat as a unique, precious eco sanctuary and home. Imagine a lifestyle where you can play a meaningful role in the environment, while enjoying a secure and peaceful home … this is Vaal de Gráce Nature Estate.

your private island and retreat awaits

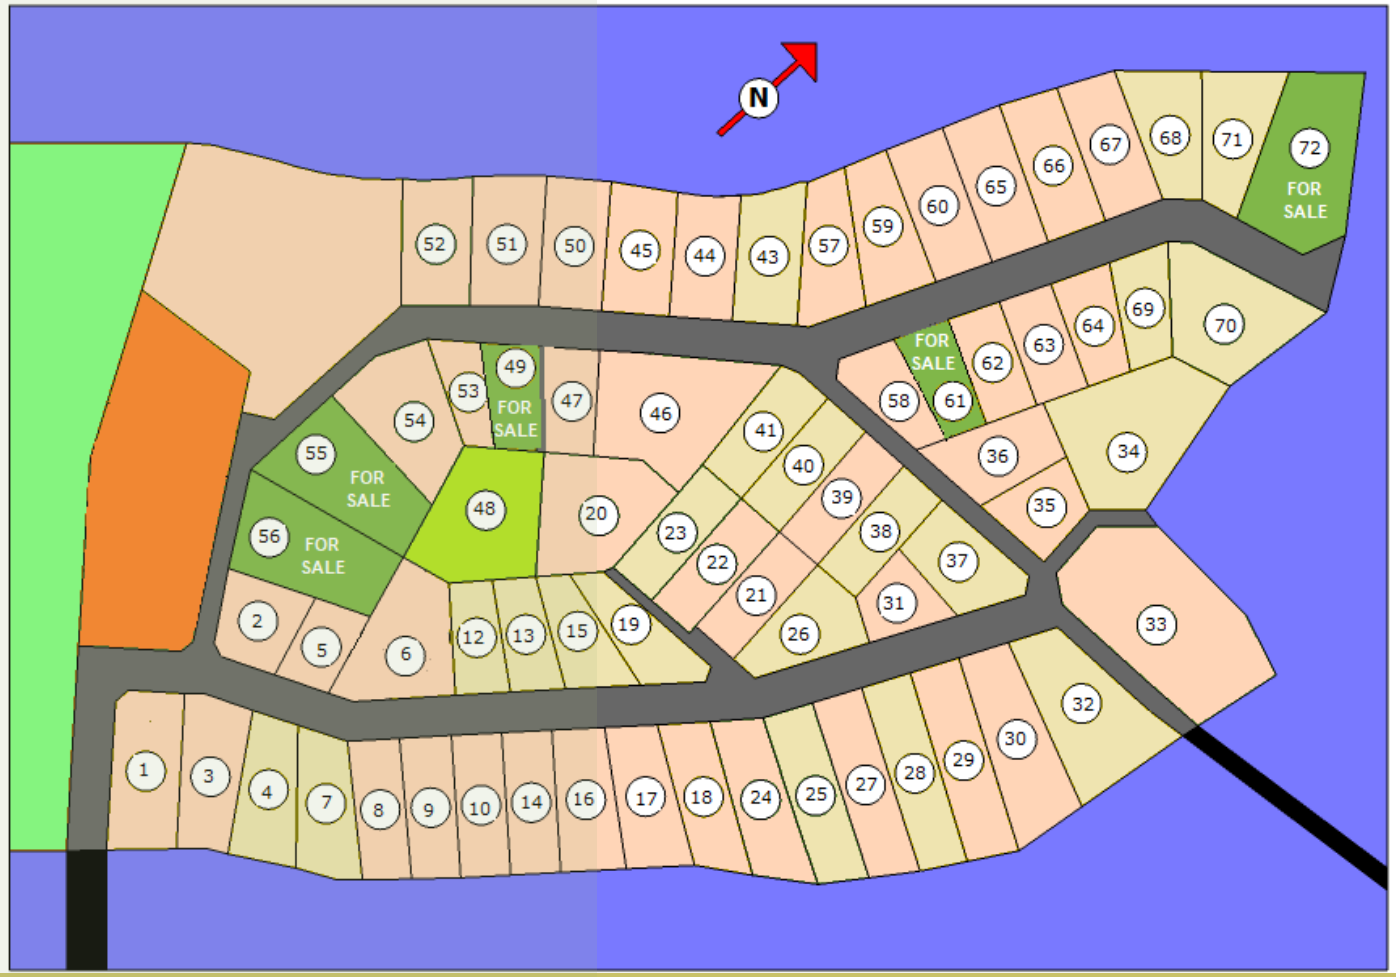
Imagine being lulled to sleep by sounds of nature, this is the Vaal de Gráce Estate promise. Space, security, nature, river, peace and quiet. The estate still has some prime fairway, river front and bush stands available - yours is waiting. Our ultimate dream is for you, the owner, to view your island retreat as a unique, precious eco sanctuary and home.

Imagine a lifestyle where you can actively play a meaningful role in the environment, while enjoying a secure and peaceful home...this is Vaal de Gráce Estate. We look forward to welcoming you and your family...

Now is your chance to own your own piece of paradise. "On an Island Estate – protected all around by the turgid waters of the Vaal River, where Impala roam the bushveld and hundreds of wild birds entertain with morning song – a truly unique opportunity has been created for you to become a privileged custodian of Africa's natural heritage while enjoying a lifestyle of unparalleled excellence.

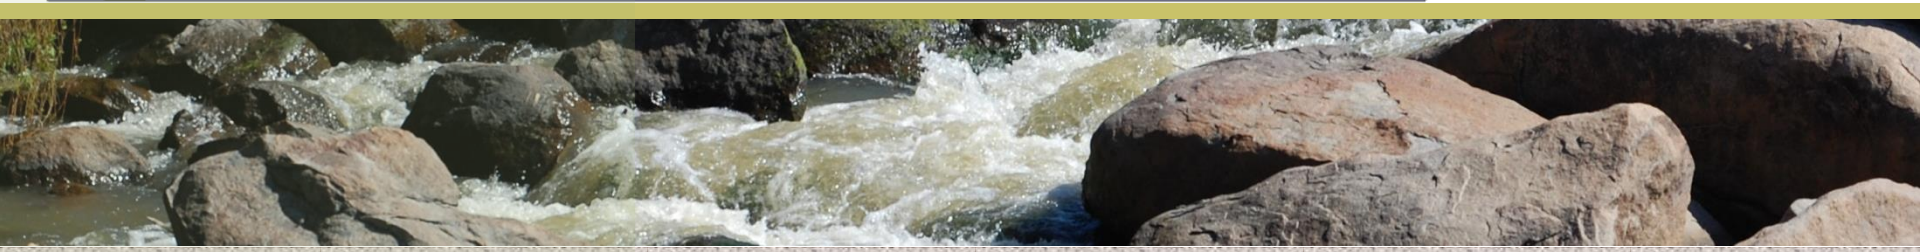
You have to experience the wonder.

vaal de gráce nature estate map



- VAAL RIVER
- STANDS SOLD
- HOUSES
- STANDS FOR-SALE (FOR SALE)
- GOLF ESTATE
- BRIDGES
- ROADS
- SECTIONAL TITLE DEVELOPMENT
- PARK

Above information taken from statistics October 2025



lifestyle

The climate in the province is typically South African, with warm, wet summers and mild, dry winters. The temperature rises from -5 to 32 degrees Celsius.

It is very unlikely that there is another town in the country, who can boast so many different activities in sport and adventure as in the case of the Free State town of Parys.

Parys is approximately a 5 minute drive from the Vaal de Gráce Estate.

Contact us:

André Coetsee

cell: +27 82 479 2598
email: andre@islandproperties.co.za
website: www.islandestate.co.za

Please note, all the images in this brochure were taken at Vaal de Gráce Estate. They are true and genuine depictions of the property

vaal de gráce